Start making your predictions for Monday Night's game as the Utes return home to face Santa Clara.

Utah by 12. They bounce back from the loss and enjoy playing amongst the MUSS!

It was nice to see Boylen doing everything he can to promote the team. He appeared at the end of the first quarter to hoot and holler about the team and get everyone to come out on Monday night. It was sweet. :)

His comment: "It's U, us and the MUSS!"

Utes roll at home.

Utah by 18

So much for our predictions...Utah loses by 15 to Santa Clara. Weber State, on the road, is up next.

They beat Utah State. We could fall to them easily, if we don't shore up our "D". We can't rely on scoring 70+ a night. Gotta have the "D"! That's what Boylen keeps preaching. I thought the guys were buying in, but they still have a long way to go.
